WILLIAM GIBSON,

49 & 51 calle Defensa

The first English draper establishment of Buenos Ayres.

William Gibson before leaving for England begs leave to return his sincere thanks for the kind and liberal support he has received from his friends in town and camp since his commencing business in 1859 and hereby intimates that he has disposed of his business and stock to Mr. P.K. GALBRAITH, and solicits a continuance of their patronage in favor of his successor who will in every respect conduct the business in all its branches upon the same principles as heretofore, receiving regular supplies of first class goods from England, Ireland and Scotland suitable for families in town and camp. Parties who have any claims against me will present their accounts and those indebted to me will confer a favor by an immediate settlement.

WILLIAM GIBSON.

A 28 x.

Referring to the preceding advertisement, I beg to intimate to the inhabitants of Buenos Ayres and those residing in the camp, that, having purchased the stock &c. of the above establishment, the business hitherto carried on by Mr. Gibson will be continued by me, on the same premises, from MONDAY THE 4th MAY, when, by adding it my constant endeavour always on hand the best class of goods, suitable both for town, and camp wear imported direct from the manufacturers I hope to merit a continuance of the patronage received by my predecessor.

The present extensive stock will be sold off at a considerable reduction on former prices to make room for new goods shortly expected from England.

TUESDAY, JUNE 9 1868

CONGRESS-DEPUTIES.

The Chamber sat as usual, notwithstanding the gloomy weather.

The Finance committee gave a favorable report of the bank scheme of Minister Sorrido, the house postponed its discussion for 15 days.

M. Cabral has another project of Law, although his former once, touching Virgins and Judicial Sales, did not prove very successful. He has laid down a bill for granting further liberty to the Press, in order that "the torch of civilization" may throw up abuses in their real colors. He made a very hyperbolic introduction, and was seconded by M. M. Montes, deoca and Alsina.

Sor. Bedoya opposed the bill as un constitutional, but it was sent to committee. The New-Stamp Schedule for the Nation was read 1st. time without opposition; on 2nd reading Sor. Velez (Cordoba) opposed, stating that this was adding insult to injury when all the figures are in specie; we will give the table to-morrow.

POLICE! MURDER!! ROBBERY!!!

It is now about a year since the Guardia Monte was tragedy, which created attention to the scandalous state of our Police administration. For a time the agitation gave hope of reform, and the Minister's note followed by the appointment of a new Judge; as also Dr. Alsina's Rural Code. (not yet come out), and the disorder in Montevideo were flattering signs of a new order of things Yet the city and camp are daily scenes of outrage, against which the authorities seem powerless, or are unwilling to believe they are indifferent to repress such scandals.

Dory's murderer has not been taken, although Dr. Acosta gave his bond for the capture. Colonel Escola's courtmartial of his own inn keeper (to our knowledge) taken place, and Dr. Castting's meritorious effort to denounce crime procured him only annoyance. The Salvoni murders are still wrapped in mystery. The assassination of Mr. Mc Clymont's capatax is like the rest, and Crime is becoming more frequent and unbearable, with impunity.

In yesterday's Tribuna we read that an Englishman's residence, in calle Paraguay, was lately broken into by a negro, who attempted to steal, and was almost succeeded in cutting the throat of one of the children. With some difficulty a murder of Sorenan was prevented in they caused the murderer to cease his attempt, but suffered him to escape. In any other country the Police would make such a noise about the matter, that no one should sleep until rigorous justice were done: in the present case, the Tribuna seems to say that the identical scenes are still filling the post of public protectors, the Police authorities ignoring such official peccadilloes.

A correspondent from Lobos gives a lamentable account of that district. A man who has been the victim of frequent robberies awoke a short time since at night. Putting aside the idea of fears of assassination, he think he does perfectly right to shoot whatever disturbs the slumbers of his family. In addition, the aggressor does not retire. Nevertheless he is fined 500 dols. for protecting his property from biped or quadruped trespassers. The less we hear of this kind of law, the better. If Dr. Alsina does not make a clean sweep of the Juzgados, Alcaldes, "et hoc genus omne," the Rural Code will be another of those brilliant Humbugs which infect Buenos Ayres.

Sr. BUSCHENTAL AND THE FREE BANKS.

We perceive in that celebrated journal called the "Tribuna," that the objection and principle motive of that inflated organ's opposition to the Free Banking system as proposed by Minister Saratieli, is that Mr. Buschental who is the reputed owner of the greater part of the Nat. Bonds, will be the immediate gainer by the law.

As personal animosity to frequently in this country is the motive of opposition, we think it right to remark, that when we opposed the Free Banking law, we did it on the broad principle, and good reason, that Banks started upon a capital represented by such flimsy securities as Argentine bonds at a discount of only 26 p. %, must inevitably fail, and entail frightful losses on the public We have not altered in our opinion one iota; and we predict that if the law is passed in its present state, we shall be flooded with a paper money more dangerous than even the currency of Buenos Ayres.

To us, it is the same whether in sub-Excellency, the sub-Minister of the Interior, or the redoubtable Mr. Buschental, is the holder of these securities. We believe candidly speaking that his sub Excellency would willingly hold a few of these bonds himself if he got the chance to get them cheap, but, if we are rightly informed, there is a certain party in town busier purchasing these securities at a good shave, than investing in alabaster statues or Roman Marble.

It is a most scandalous absurdity, to object to the passing of such an important law, as the Free Banking act; simply because the holders, who are possibly of different politics should be benefited.

If the Minister, as we have said before, can hit upon some plan, whereby the paper money will be represented by an undiscounting security then indeed we say, give us Banks. But it is monstrous to suppose that 25 or even 40 p. % margin, would cover the loss if a number of these securities were forced upon the market, by reason of the non-payment in specie of one of these embryo banks.

It is more than probable, owing to the great want which is felt in the Interior for moveable capital and also owing to the minority of Portenos in Congress, that a Free Banking law will be passed. Let us therefore, instead of urging absurd and contemptible objections, demand that a proper basis be established by which the solvency of the country will not be imperilled. Immaterial it is who holds Government securities, so long as precaution is taken that they are not parced on the public at a surreptitious value.

This despicable system of personality is what we wage war against: forsooth because Sr Buschental holds 2/3 of the National bonds, we are to have no free Banks: rather let us say, because the securities do not represent the value Mr. Sarfield puts on them.

We trust, however, more to the Minister's keen judgment and patriotism, than even to Tribuna opposition, or congressional perspicacity. A man like Mr. Sarsfield, cannot be desirous of fathering a law, which would inevitably bring ruin and bankruptcy on his country. On principle we oppose the project as it at present stands, and unless the modifications which we have hinted be introduced, we shall take good care to advise our unsophisticated fellow-countrymen, both at home and abroad from trusting their money in such wild cat speculations.

MONSTROUS TURNIPS.—Mr. Thomas Young of Pilar brought us yesterday the measurement of a Mangel-Worzel grown in his quinta: the immense turnip is 18 inches round. The seed was brought from Ireland a year ago, and Mr. Young's plantation will soon "astonish the natives."

THE CAMPS are in an excellent condition The Lagunas, formerly dry, are now full of water, pasture is springing up, and with the sole exception of Magdalena, there is no fear of drought.

THE SCHOOLS.—The Mercedes Convent was crowded on Sunday being the last day of the exhibition of the orphans' works

The Flores Campaign

Great Battle!

NOBODY KILLED!

Both Sides Fled

On Sunday the Monny arrived from Montevideo, and considerable satisfaction was felt through town, as it was current that Flores had been captured, and peace and order once more restored to the Banda Oriental party. It, however, the unguaranteed statement of some of the passengers, that such was the latest news in Montevideo on the morning of the steamer, we can find nothing to justify the report.

The newspapers in Montevideo are not successful in defining the difference between the Daily and Weekly Standard. The Siglo has evidently Flores proclivities and revolutionary sympathies, while the other papers raise us up to the skies for our anti-revolutionary principles.

The Tribuna published a supplement on Sunday, in which it stated that Flores had whipped the Government forces near Mercedes, and that several Blanco officers had passed over to the Colorado party. In the midst of such conflicting reports, it is difficult to say how matters stand.

We extract the following from the Montevideo papers:

Sr Trillo writes from San José to the Minister, advising him of a fight having taken place near El Biscacho, which Gen. Flores arrived at Brequelo, where they are encamped.

On the 28th, after Flores had passed the Quequay, 25 men, who were driving cattle were taken prisoners.

A lot of fellows in Salto had asked a free pardon of the Government.

Lamas had cleared the Arapey and Bonete Grande in front of the rebels.

On the 30th May, Flores stopped the diligence going from Mercedes to Montevideo, and seized the official correspondence. He sent on the mail guarded by an unthreatening security then indeed we say, give us Banks. But it is monstrous to suppose that 25 or even 40 p. % margin, would cover the loss if a number of these securities were forced upon the market, by reason of the non-payment in specie of one of these embryo banks.

It is more than probable, owing to the great want which is felt in the Interior for moveable capital and also owing to the minority of Portenos in Congress, that a Free Banking law will be passed. Let us therefore, instead of urging absurd and contemptible objections, demand that a proper basis be established by which the solvency of the country will not be imperilled. THE ORPHAN EXHIBITION.

On Sunday last the Merced convent was crowded with all the fashionables of the city. General and editors, lawyers and politicians, young and old, all assembled within the cloister walls to inspect the peaceful trophies of orphan industry. We rambled through the rooms, scrutinized all the fancy work, the paintings, and the sewing with the pleasing satisfaction that in Buenos Ayres, the fatherless girl, the destitute orphan, was cared for, watched over, and instructed in the arts of industry peculiar to her sex.

The extreme neatness of the dormitories, and above all the unpretending furniture of the reception room, the order and regularity which prevailed throughout the whole establishment, attracted our particular admiration.

Without professing a leaning in the least degree to the conventual system, we feel in duty bound to draw attention by to the above facts and to admit that our impressions, on leaving the first South American convent we had the pleasure to inspect, were extremely agreeable.

THE O'CONNELL STATUE.

Contrary to expectation, we shall have a considerable sum to forward to our friends at home. At first we doubted whether we could make up £10, but now there is every probability the sum will exceed £100. To-day we acknowledge 100 $ from Mr. Edmund Dwyer, Foreman of Gas works: he is a native of Castleless men of Tipperary" of whom the Liberator was so proud. We have, here, the representatives of several counties of Ireland, and we trust none will be omitted in this testimony of Irish gratitude.

It may be apropos to mention that this is not the first monument erected to O'Connell. The Mausoleum at Glasnevin, Dublin, where repose his ashes, is a round tower of granite 250 feet high, erected by the nation at an expense of £13,000 Next to Nelson, over his heart, at St. Agatha's, Rome by his faithful friend, Charles Bianconi, is a splendid sarcophagus of Carrara marble, on which are carved in alto relief some incidents of his life: it cost 500 guineas. The statue at the Royal Exchange, Dublin, is a figure of gigantic proportions, and represents him during the Bill of Catholic Emancipation.

Limerick, Waterford, Kilkenny, and several other Irish towns, have resolved each to possess a public monument of the great benefactor, and the statue of Father Matthew for Dublin is due to the working-men of Dublin This town was the cradle of Emancipation, having returned O'Connell to the Imperial Parliament, and the first residing, a master bricklayer, set on foot a penny subscription, which, however, fell short of the mark, by £10 The idea was a happy one, without apport-expenses, when the patriotic Editor of Freeman's Journal (and Repeal martyr) lived the Orangemen of Ireland to raise the money for a magnificent sepulchral monument. Money flowed in, so abundantly from all classes and quarters, that the statue was cast at once and inaugurated in the market place, where the grand Monument the Dublin became The Corporation unanimously ceded the finest site in the city, Sackville Street, at the foot of Carlisle Bridge, and the memory of the Liberator will be honored in a manner worthy of the Man, and the Country which was so happy as to produce him.

LA TRAVIATA.

On Saturday night Dña Marietta Mollo made her debut in Buenos Ayres. The opera selected as the vehicle of a favorite with the Portenos the House was crowded with the elite of our city. The fates have so ordered it, without an operatic company that there was a rush on Saturday night for seats.

The house was not to be over witnessed a Prima donna receive a warmer reception than that of Mariotta Mollo There was an evident disposition on the part of the audience to be pleased, and certainly we must say that she well deserved the enthusiastic reception she met with.

She gave the celebrated supper song Libiamo with remarkable precision: few have ever heard it better sung here or elsewhere. Her pure tones of her voice were only surpassed by her charming notes.

"Gran Dio morir si giovani" was rendered with a feeling and expression heretofore unknown on the boards of Colon.

The new tenor has not yet made his appearance, but we hear great things of him. The Baritone was also deserving of praise: in fact we have never before seen or ever expect to see La Travia in better in Colon-

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Town is rife with all sorts of rumors are respecting Flores: some say the fellow is caught at last, and that he and Chavero will both be tried about the same time, whilst others insist that he is within a day's march of Montevideo having beaten Cibil, cut up Medina and smashed Lamas and his men to pieces. Unhappy country, where the only news of importance is about those revolutionists and invaders. Would to Heaven, that we had once and for ever done with these bloody movements. The feeling in town is most decidedly anti-Flores, and every day it is increasing: not that mercenaries are a farthing more for Blanco than Colorados, but the plain fact of the matter is, we are all heartily sick of this eternal fighting, are all sigh for peace, and peace we must have at any cost, at any price.

The Chambers on Saturday night, at last passed the reformed Chacoma bill: it was very interesting discussion took place between one of the members, and the provincial Finance minister, the latter having stated that he knew of no such railway in Spain which only cost £3500 per mile: on a little cross questioning he corrected himself and stated £13500 as the sum: many of some of our public men is truly humiliating: and this all arises from putting good men in wrong places, for instance we have an unadvocate metamorphosed into a Minister of War, a country estanciero into a private Provincial Minister, and an hitherto obscure member of Finance. The result of course is obvious. Frightful mediocrity is the mildest term we can apply.

The Chiviloy Land Law, passed to accommodate industrious immigrants, is what we call an agricultural humbug, for it only binds the land speculator to 20 p$ down and the bal in instalments of 20p$ yearly at the rate of 200,000 the league. We should like to see the immigrant that ever who purposes becoming a Chiviloy farmer and who could pay such heavy sums: probably our provincial Ministers think the cheap wood and music is as lucrative as serving in the Government House. If the object of the Government is to foster the farming interests, then let the land grants or squatter laws at most at 20 years lease, if not gratis, at a nominal rent.

The Tuesday yesterday was so heavy that no boat could leave the mole head. The tramway works are progressing; the rails are on the ground and ready to be laid, as soon as the earthworks are finished.

The Loss Brothers performed on Sunday night to a crowded house. Every part and box was occupied by the ladies, as usual, mustered strong on the occasion. The Loss brothers we believe, will only give one more performance, as they start in the French packet for Europe.

The news from Entre Rios is not of a very pleasing nature. We hear that all the officers of every party have received orders to be in readiness with their men, at the shortest notice. This would seem to portend some fighting.

After all the fuss and nonsense respecting the capture of the Salto, the breach of international law and all that sort of humbug, the affair has ended just at we expected and foretold. We see in the Telegrafo Maritimo, that the Salto is actually detained out on the 10th instant with passengers and cargo for Buenos Ayres. We are glad that the matter has so ended. No one can question the right of the Brazilian Government to employ a steamer to which they pay a monthly subsidy; the Salto was merely taken to transport troops to Montevideo and Maldonado.

From our private Montevidean correspondent we learn that 200 infantry have just marched out to Toledo, which is only 7 leagues out, and also 800 cavalry, under the command of Colonel Burgueño of Maldonado; these men are to be stationed at Toledo for Montevideo 25 p$ and greatest quietness prevails: there is more noise and bustle about Flores in Buenos Ayres than in the Banda Oriental.

We have received a very important communication from the Oriental Consul general in Liverpool: see another column.

The news from the camp is not the best. From far do we S we hear that the cattle are dying fast and the sheep are not much longer. The grass is completely gone and the Lagunas are dry. Farmers in the South have not the most cheering prospects.

OUTRAGE IN LOBOS,

June 6th 1868

To the Edtr—Sir—I have to inform you that Mr Frank Kelly is suffering from injuries from the wounds of a drunken gauchos. They set upon him after night stealing his sheep out of his corral. On Monday night last, to his astonishment, two men entered his sheep corral. The poor fellow got up and thought that there was a party coming to steal his sheep; the was of course mistaken it was an act to keep them safe 1194.

URUGUAY BEEF.

Montevidean Legation, London April 8th 1863.

To the Editor.—Sir,—In reference to a paragraph in your paper of the 25th February last, I beg to state that you have much misapprehended me in a remark on Montevideo beef, which was the one opening trade in this commodity with Europe being likely to fail, the prospects never were so encouraging. The foreign-ers of talented many of whom do, to no detrimental to the future hopes of the trade, was made by an inexperienced individual, who took no heed of the warnings previously given him of the consequent failure was a matter naturally to be expected. The trade with England is yet only in its infancy, and an important step of this kind was held to prove prejudicial to its future success. But the large o-nsignments already received in England from competent-dealers, with others on their way, and upon which £1500 Insurance has this week been paid, afford every hope that all that is anticipated will be realized, and that a mutually beneficial commerce on a large scale, not only with the United Kingdom, but with Europe at large is certain soon to be established.

As proof of its rapid advancement in this settlement, an application made by the Portuguese Consul at Montevideo, Sr de Souza Leite é Azevedo, has received the hearty concurrence of the Government at Lisbon, from the hands of the Marquis de Loulé, for introducing this Beef into Portugal—duty free—so satisfied is his Excellency that he will possess a great benefit to a large portion of the population there by plasing within their reach a cheap and nutritious food.

With thanks for the many flattering references you have made to the exertions of the Montevidean authorities in the trade, to make known the productions of the Oriental Republic, and hoping you will give me an opportunity of re-assuring your readers on this point,

I am

Yours truly

E. B. Neale.

Consul General for Montevideo

LOCAL EVENTS.

FIGHT.—On Sunday night a fight took place in front of Santa Domingo, calle Defensa; the parties had knives, but by the timely interference of the neighbours, the scenes were confined to the principals and assistants and walk them off to the Policia.

A RAT.—A most amusing scene took place in front of the Boles yesterday a little English terrier caught a rat, and as the rat was the larger of the dog was unable to kill it; with the assistance however of a few heroic breeders the dog triumphed. The crowd which had collected round to inspect the fight was extraordinary: one would think that Flores or the Chacho had arrived.

THE BANK.—On yesterday the Casa de Moneda was unusually crowded, occasioned by the drawing of numbers and lottery ticket sellers the small deposits department was so crammed that entrance was impossible, for a time, to tellers, seem rather slow cashes, and would never do as clerks, except in Buenos Ayres.

ARRIVALS.—The Mystery and Astria have both arrived with valuable cargoes and full complement of passengers.

PHILHARMONICS.—These Societies are becoming both numerous and fashionable: we hear the new one is at the South end of the town and numbers more than twenty members: the singing is good, the performers not being limited to the Lords of Creation.

RIGHT STEP.—We are glad to assure our readers that, in future, the notices of Irish or English documentary litigation will be published in this paper by the English Consular agents

In the Plenas owing to the state of the weather very little was done,

On the Salado the time sales of ounces attracted attention. There seemed to be a disposition on the part of merchants to secure their ounces rather than trust to the future. Many of our merchants argued with distrust anyone who calculated to stop the lowering of the paper money; it would be a violation of a solemn compact, and cannot be permitted.

Paper money is said to be scarce, and many parties assert with a good deal of plausibility that if the monthly burnings be faithfully performed at the ensuing time papermoney will become so scarce, that ounces will suffera tremendous fall We have only to remark that if thereof such a result could amongst us, this reasoning would hold good; but with ounces scarce no immediate fall is to be expected.

Buenos Ayres.

JAMES SAUNDERS begs to announce to the public that he continues to manufacture ALBERT KEYSER, in the above business, at the premises formerly occupied by Messrs Bowe, and by Messrs Bowe in connexion J. Simms.

Steam engines, presses, and dressing machine when erected on the premises, of a superior quality for dressing wheat flours, water mills, &c., horse power, pumps of every and others pumps, &c. simple and economical, screw propellers. Sugar mills work in general and all kinds of machinery, required at the shortest notice and on the most reasonable terms.

The great share of patronage which he has enjoyed during the past year, and the best references he can give his friends of promptness and fidelity in the execution of every business entrusted to him and in which he has taken so high rank as to merit the confidence of the public, he considers a sufficient guarantee to solicit a continuance of their favours.

COLEGIO ANGLO-PORTEÑO

203—CALLE SAN PEDRO—203

This school has been established for several years, and is well known as such in this city.

No pains are spared to make the place of instruction attractive to the pupils, and the instruction itself profitable.

Patrons are respectfully invited to visit the school, and to note carefully the monthly reports of progress and deportment.

The English, Spanish, and French languages are carefully taught by skilful instructors, and every branch of useful or ornamental education may be prosecuted in either of these languages.

French and drawing are taught after school hours. Also an afternoon class for fancy work four times a week.

Day pupils can be received at any time, and a few could be accommodated as boarders or half-boarders.
